

AASR Valley of Cleveland - History

Just six years after the Rite was established in Cincinnati a petition was presented to the Supreme Council meeting at Boston, Mass., on Thursday morning, May 26th, 1859, by Ill. Bro. Killian Henry Van Rensselaer, 33°, Deputy for Pennsylvania, Ohio, and the West, and a Dispensation was granted the same day for a Lodge of Perfection and a Council of Princes of Jerusalem. It is interesting to note the petitioners were the following prominent York Rite Masons: . Peter Thatcher, Jr., Grand King of the Grand Chapter of Ohio; Richard Creighton, Grand Generalissimo of the Grand Encampment of Ohio; Albert Charles McNairy, High Priest of Wheeling Chapter; Edward R. Griswold, Past High Priest and Grand Commander, Knights Templar; David E. Field; and Theodore Ross.

The six petitioners were not only instrumental in obtaining the Dispensation, but five of them devoted their energies as leaders for the next seven years in establishing the Rite in the Valley.

Ariel Chapter, Rose Croix, was granted a Dispensation on August 25th, 1860, and the three bodies were later chartered but the charters were not issued until May 19th, 1866. The meeting place for these bodies was in the old Masonic Temple at East Third and Superior Avenue. In 1866 the activities were moved to East 6th and Superior Avenue, now the site of the Federal Reserve Bank, and in 1920 the affairs and business of the Valley were transferred to the Masonic Auditorium at 3615 Euclid Avenue. In 2021, the Valley settled in its new home at the beautiful and historic Berea Masonic Temple.

Some interesting observations of those early days. Eliadah Lodge of Perfection, U.D., was organized on June 15th, 1859, with five of the petitioners present, Theodore Ross being absent. There were insufficient members to fill the offices, and some acted in dual capacities. The Ill. Deputy K.H. Van Rensselaer, 33°, installed the officers elect. Peter Thatcher, Jr., was the first Thrice Potent Master.

Bahurim Council, Princes of Jerusalem, U.D., was also organized on June 15th, 1859, with Albert C. McNairy as Sovereign Prince.

Ariel Chapter, Rose Croix (U.D.), was organized on June 18th, 1860, with Theodore Ross as Most Wise Master.

BY-LAWS

—OF—

ELIADAH GRAND LODGE OF PERFECTION.

The members of ELIADAH LODGE OF PERFECTION, of the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, working in the city of Cleveland, county of Cuyahoga, and state of Ohio, under authority of a warrant granted by the Supreme Council of Sovereign Grand Inspectors General of the 33d degree for the Northern Masonic Jurisdiction, United States of America, bearing date May 19th, 1866, corresponding to the fifth day of the Hebrew month Sivan, 5626, do make and establish the following by-laws for the government of said lodge.

ARTICLE I.

OFFICERS.

The officers of this lodge shall, in accordance with ancient usages, and the constitutions of the Supreme Council, be styled and take rank as follows :

1. Thrice Potent Grand Master.
2. Hiram of Tyre, Deputy Grand Master.
3. Venerable Senior Grand Warden.
4. Venerable Junior Grand Warden.
5. Grand Orator.
6. Grand Treasurer.
7. Grand Secretary, Keeper of the S.: and A.:
8. Grand Master of Ceremonies.
9. Grand Captain of the Guard.
10. Grand Hospitaler.
11. Grand Tiler.

All of whom shall be elected annually at the stated meeting on or next preceding the third day of the Hebrew month Adar, and installed within one calendar month thereafter.

The duties of the officers respectively shall be such as are required by the laws and usages of the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite.

ARTICLE II.

MEETINGS.

The stated meetings of this lodge shall be the first and fourth Fridays of each month, and from October to April shall convene at 7:30 o'clock, and from April to October at 8 o'clock, p. m.

All meetings designated as Re-unions, due notice of which shall have been given, shall be deemed regular meetings for the transaction of any business regularly brought before them. Special meetings may be called for the transaction of business at the pleasure of the Thrice Potent Grand Master, or, in his absence, by the Deputy Grand Master, due notice of which shall be given by mail or otherwise to all resident members, and to non-residents should the business be of more than ordinary or usual importance.

ARTICLE III.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

The order of business at regular meetings should be :

- 1st. Reading the minutes.
- 2d. Reading and referring petitions.
- 3d. Reports of committees.
- 4th. Balloting for candidates.
- 5th. Miscellaneous.

ARTICLE IV.

DEGREES AND MEMBERSHIP.

All applications for the degrees conferred in this lodge, or for membership, shall be in the form prescribed by the Supreme Council, signed by the applicant, and recommended by at least one member of the lodge; shall be presented at a stated meeting, and, if received, be referred to a committee of three members for inquiry and report, and shall lie over at least until the next stated meeting before balloting thereon; provided, however, that in such instances as may be considered cases of emergency, by unanimous consent of the members present, and the proper authority having been obtained from the Deputy of the Supreme Council, petitions may be received and action had thereon at any stated or called meeting of the lodge.

A unanimous vote shall be necessary to elect for degrees or for membership; and in no case shall a ballot be taken until the required fee shall be in actual deposit.

In the event of the rejection of any applicant, the Secretary shall draw an order upon the Treasurer for the amount of the fee which accompanied the application without action being taken by the lodge.

After an application has been received and referred, it shall not be withdrawn without the consent of three-fourths of the members present.

Any applicant for the degrees failing to present himself within six months after his election and notification of the same by the Secretary, shall be considered as having forfeited the fee deposited, and all proceedings in his case become null and void; provided, however, that for good cause shown, the applicant may, by unanimous consent of the members present, be restored to his status at the time of his election.

ARTICLE V.

FEES AND DUES.

The fee for the degrees conferred in this lodge shall be thirty dollars ($30.00) and the fee for membership two dollars ($2.00), which must accompany the application.

Every member shall, on or before the first meeting in January of each year, pay to the Secretary the sum of two dollars ($2.00) as annual dues, and any member in arrears for more than two years dues shall be liable to the penalty of suspension from membership.

ARTICLE VI.

FINANCE.

A Committee on Finance, to consist of three members, shall be appointed annually by the T. :. P. :. Grand Master at the time of his installation, whose duty shall be to examine the books of the Treasurer and Secretary, and make a report thereon at the annual meeting. The books and accounts of the Treasurer and Secretary shall at all times be at the disposal of this committee upon their application for the same.

ARTICLE VII.

AMENDMENTS.

These by-laws may be altered or amended at any stated meeting, by a vote of three-fourths of the members present; provided, such alteration or amendment shall have been proposed in writing at a previous stated meeting, and shall be approved by the Deputy of the Supreme Council.

All by-laws and parts of by-laws heretofore adopted by this lodge are hereby repealed.

HISTORICAL.

ELIADAH GRAND LODGE OF PERFECTION was organized under the authority of the Supreme Council of Sovereign Grand Inspectors General, 33°, for the Northern Jurisdiction, U. S. A., on the fifteenth day of June, 1859; a dispensation having been previously issued by Kilian H. Van Rensselaer, 33°, Deputy of the Supreme Council for Ohio and Pennsylvania.

The petitioners were Peter Thatcher, Jr., Edward R. Griswold, Albert C. McNairy, Theodore Ross, Richard Creighton, and David E. Field, all of whom, except Theodore Ross, were present at the organization.

There not being a sufficient number of members to fill the various offices it became necessary for some to act in dual capacities, and the first election of officers, on the date of organization, resulted as follows:

Peter Thatcher, Jr., T.: P.: G.: M.: and Treasurer.

Edward R. Griswold, Dep.: G.: M.: H.: K.: of T.

Albert C. McNairy, Sen.: G.: Warden.

Theodore Ross, Jun.: G.: Warden.

Richard Creighton, G.: M.: of Ceremonies.

David E. Field, G.: Secretary and C.: of Guard.

All of the above, except David E. Field, were named in the charter which was granted subsequently.

The Ill.: Deputy, H. K. Van Rensselaer, being present, installed the officers elect, and the lodge was closed without transacting further business.

The next meeting of the lodge was held on August 26th, 1859, when the petitions of brothers George H. Adams and George H. Burt were received and referred to committees, and a code of by-laws adopted. Sections 6 and 7 of the by-laws then adopted provided that the Secretary should, within 24 hours after receipt of petition for degrees or membership, inform each member, either in person or by mail, of the time when the report of the committee would be in order; and it was made the duty of every member not able to be present, to mail his vote or hand the same in writing to the Secretary previous to the time when action was to be taken. Such requirements at the present time could hardly be complied with, and in fact the by-law became obsolete long previous to its repeal by the adoption of a revised code.

About the beginning of the year 1861 there appears by the "records" to have been a "speck of war," or something akin thereto, in the Supreme Council, which called for some resolutions on the subject, and which are entered at large on the minutes, "unanimously endorsing their proceedings," renewing "our allegiance and pledge fealty to said Supreme Council in all matters pertaining to the work and government of bodies of the Ancient and Accepted Rite."

Some fire works were let off in honor of the elevation of "Father" Van Rensselaer to the office of Lieut. Grand Commander of the Supreme Council, and in the words of the committee on resolutions "feeling—without disparaging the claims of any one—that it could not be placed in better hands."

Shortly after this (May 20, 1861) Edward A. Raymond, 33°, was deposed from the office of Sov.: Gr.: Com.: and Ill.: K.: H.: Van Rensselaer, 33°, was placed in Supreme command. On the eighth of January, 1864, annual dues in ELIADAH LODGE were "discontinued until further orders," and were not again collected until the year 1888.

The candidates received into the Rite during the earlier years of the establishment of the bodies in this city, were:

*George H. Burt, 14°, December 23, 1859.

George H. Adams, 14°, February 10, 1860.

George W. Berry, 14°, March 24, 1860.

George W. Howe, 14°, March 24, 1860.

Robert S. Weaver, 14°, April 27, 1860.

*Joseph R. Conrad, 14°, April 27, 1860.

Lucien Hills, 14°, June 22, 1860.

Heman Ely, 14°, December 4, 1860.

*Edgar A. Hopkins, 14°, January 25, 1861.

*William D. Cushing, 14°, April 1, 1861.

*Calvin C. Wick, 14°, March 14, 1862.

*George W. Morrill, 14°, April 29, 1863.

*Alfred Hopkins, 14°, April 29, 1863.

*Thomas Sparrow, 14°, October 18, 1864.

*Joseph M. Stuart, 14°, October 18, 1864.

*James Nesbitt, 14°, October 18, 1864.

*Kent Jarvis, 14°, February 9, 1865.

John J. Benton, 14°, February 9, 1865.

*Milton L. Rider, 14°, February 9, 1865.

Charles A. Woodward, 14°, February 9, 1865.

The above, with the charter members, constituted the entire membership (26) when the charter was granted, May 19, 1866, and of whom, those marked * are now joined with the silent majority.

The succession of the principal officers of the lodge is appended.

Although the history of the lodge is practically a history of the other bodies of the Rite, which were organized at about the same time, the following notes culled from the records of these bodies may not be devoid of interest.

Bahurim Council Princes of Jerusalem

Dispensation for Bahurim Council was issued by ILL.: GILES FONDA YATES, 33°, Act.:M.:P.:Sov.:Gr.:Com.: of the Supreme Council, to PETER THATCHER, ALBERT C. MCNAIRY, RICHARD CREIGHTON, EDWARD R. GRISWOLD, and THEODORE ROSS, under date May 27, 1859, and was organized by Ill.: Kilian H. Van Rensselaer, 33°, Deputy of the Supreme Council for this District, on the fifteenth day of June, 1859. The first officers elected were:

Albert C. McNairy, M.: E.: S.: P.: G.: M.:

Peter Thatcher, G.: H.: P.: and Deputy.

Richard Creighton, S.: G.: W.:

David E. Field, J.: G.: W.:

Edward R. Griswold, G.: M.: C.:

Theodore Ross, G.: M.: E.:

Peter Thatcher, Treasurer.

David E. Field, Gr.: Secretary.

But no further meetings were held until April, 25, 1860, when a code of by-laws was adopted.

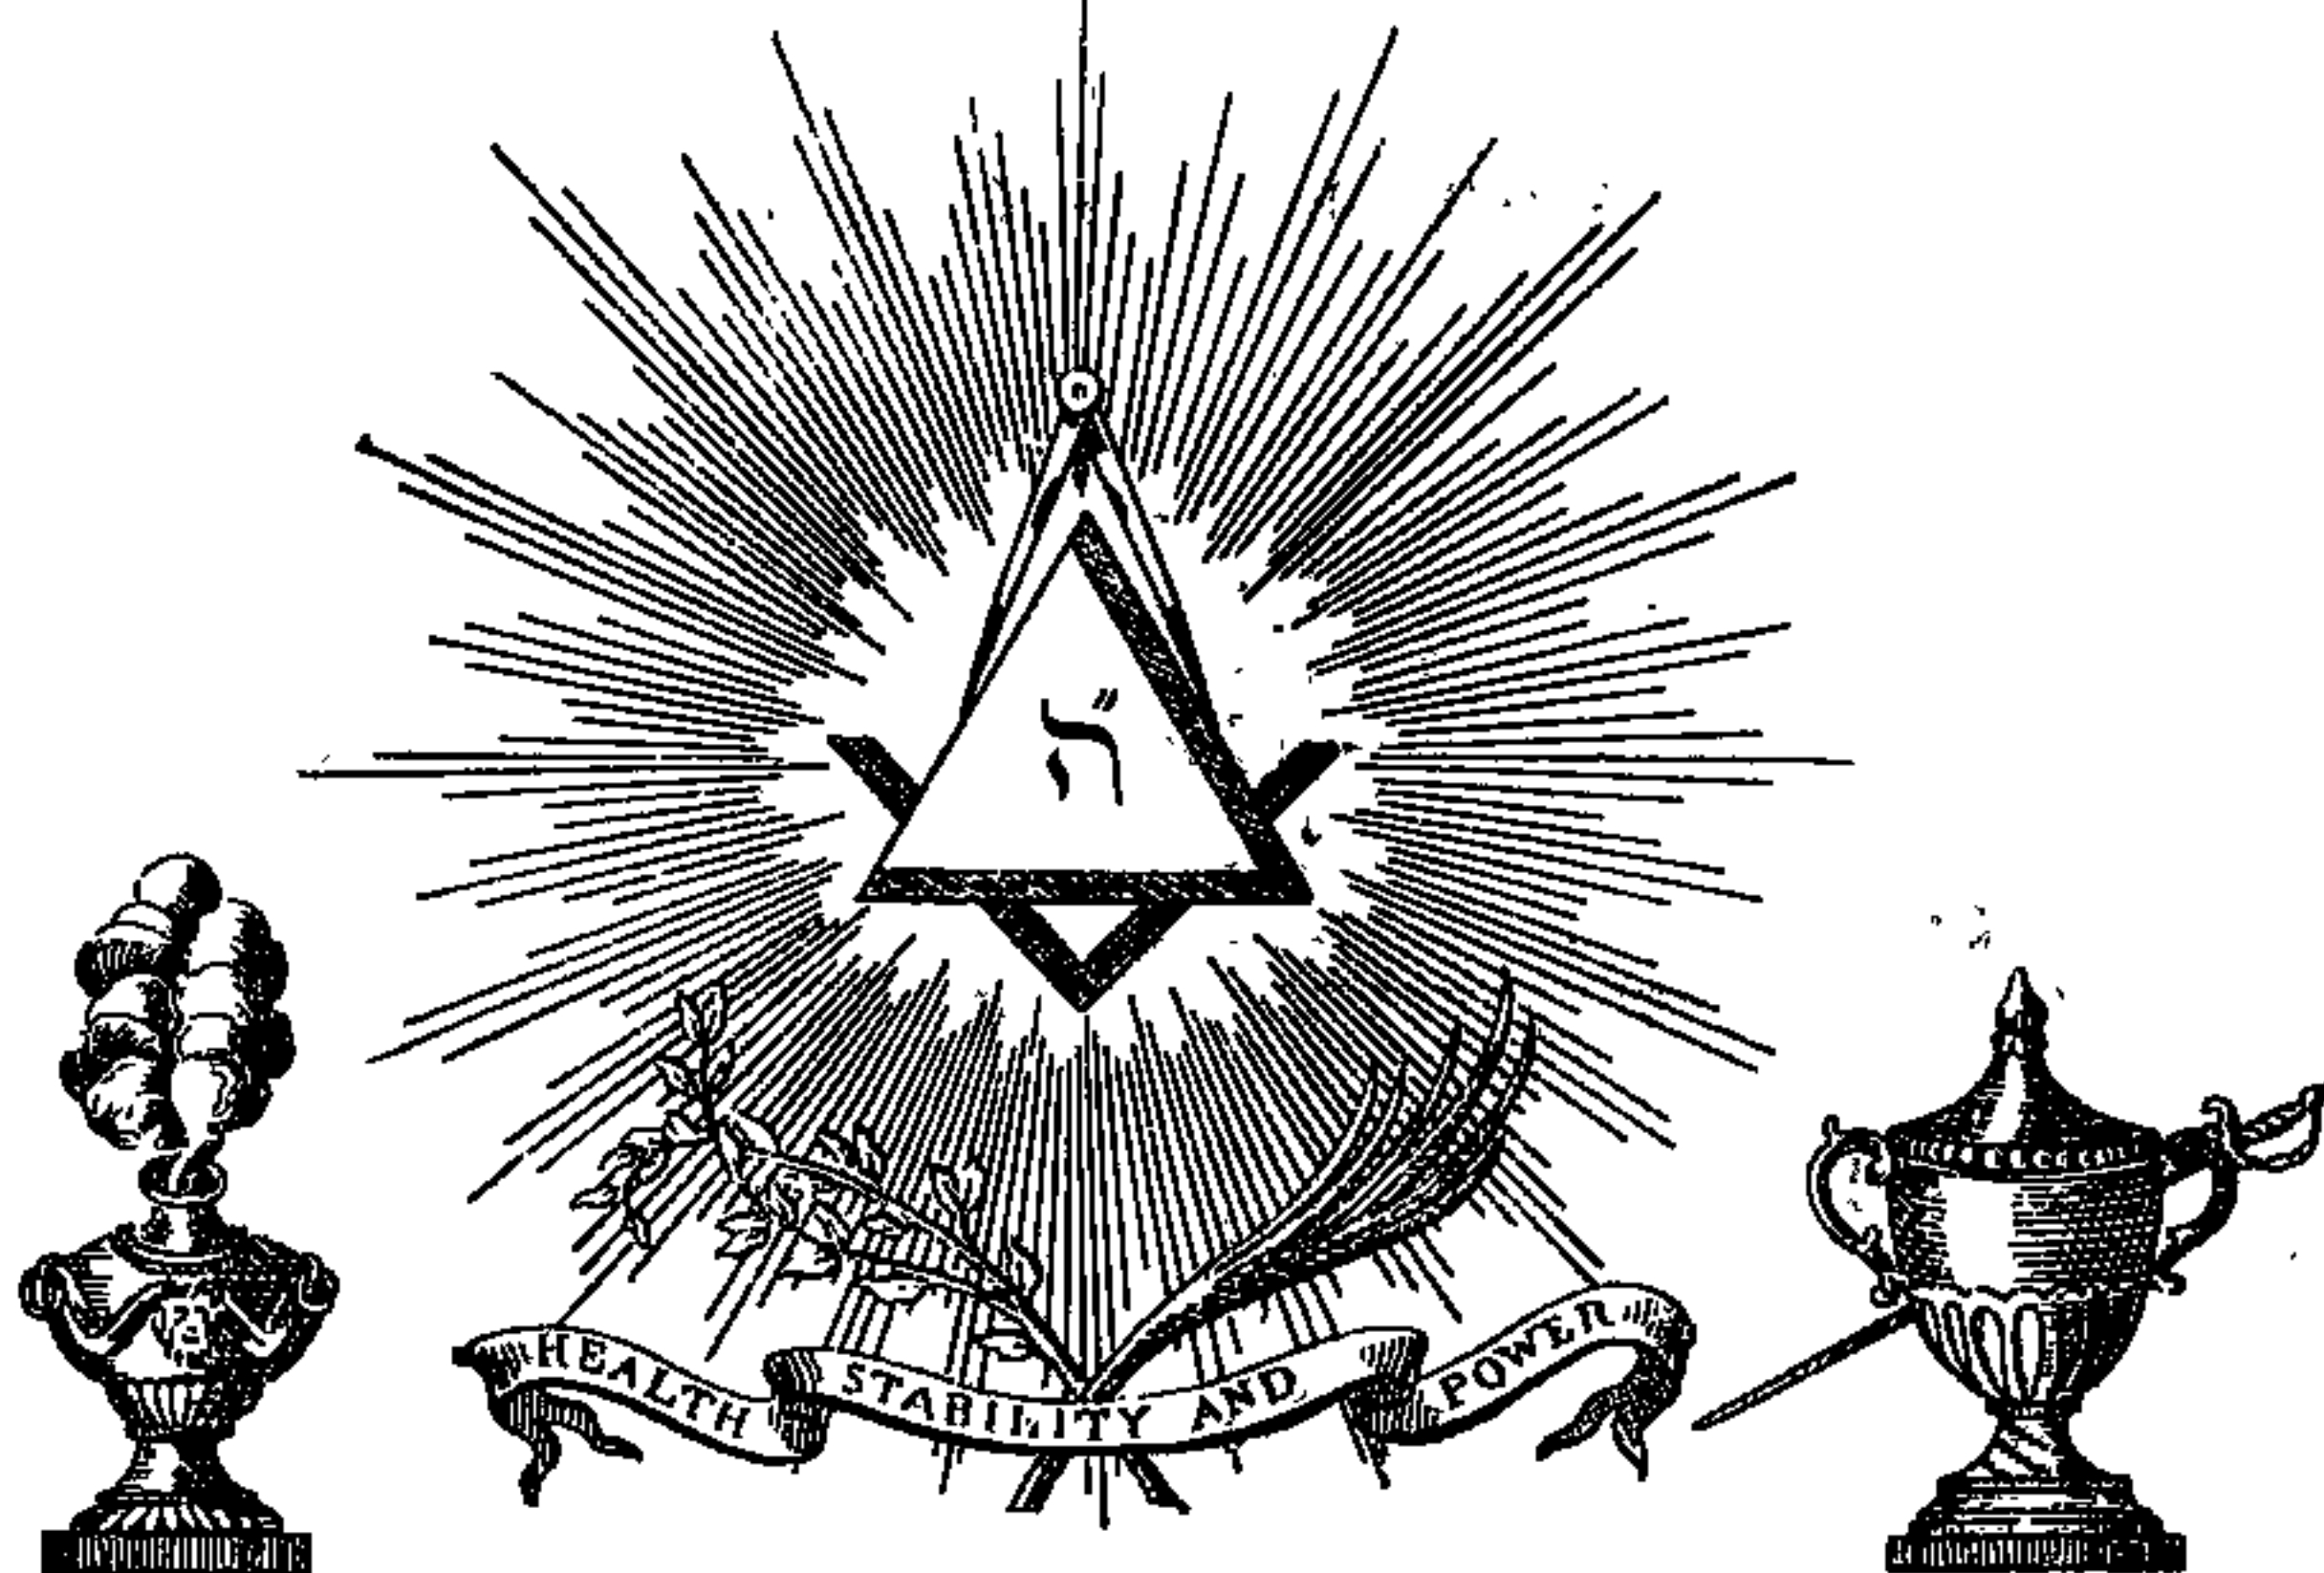

The process of election of initiates was the same as in the Lodge of Perfection, and the dues were fixed at one dollar per year.

Meetings were held at irregular intervals, and from December 25, 1861, to April 25, 1862, no convocations were held; then occurred another hiatus until January 28, 1863, this being followed by infrequent meetings during all the period of the "War of the Rebellion."

Many tales have been told of the annoyances and difficulties which beset the "fathers of the guild" in their efforts to establish the Rite in this city. The frequent visits of encouragement made by Ill. Bro. Van Rensselaer, who personally conducted the work on many occasions, gave impetus to the craft, and the records bear evidence of the number of times the brethren were obliged to "feel in their pockets" for the "needful" to replenish "Uncle Peter's" treasury. The accessories and paraphernalia were not imported. Theodore Ross, a genius in his way, created many of the moveables. George H. Adams' master hand illuminated the canvas and perfected many of the striking scenes which entranced the novice, as step by step he progressed onward toward the summit of Ancient Craft Masonry.

The writer remembers—as do many others—many of the crudities which were in use before the Rite was transferred to the present Temple. However, we may criticise and smile at the ancient belongings it is quite evident that the heart of the builder was in his work, and that peace, harmony and absolute fraternity prevailed in their councils, and in their lives.

The following table, taken from the records of the lodge, will show how these early efforts have borne fruit.

Lake Erie Consistory S.:P.:R.:S.:

After many years of mild attempt and patient waiting, a dispensation was issued May 2, 1889, by Ill.: Henry L. Palmer, 33°, Sov.: Gr.: Commander, for the establishment of a consistory at Cleveland, Ohio, under the title of

THE CONSISTORY OF NORTHERN OHIO.

The petition was signed by four hundred and fifty Princes of the Royal Secret, and was undoubtedly the most numerously signed petition ever presented for the institution of a Masonic body.

ILL.: BRENTON DANIEL BABCOCK, 33°, was named in the dispensation as Commander in Chief and the other officers appointed and elective were:

- Ill.: Samuel Briggs, 33°, First Lieut. Commander.
- Ill.: William J. Akers, 33°, Second Lieut. Commander.
- Bro.: Henry Perkins, 32°, Minister of State.
- Ill.: LaFayette Lyttle, 33°, Chancellor.
- Ill.: Charles A. Woodward, 33°, Treasurer.
- Ill.: Samuel Briggs, 33°, Secretary.
- Bro.: Elliot M. Wilson, 32°, Engineer and Architect.
- Bro.: Evan Morris, 32°, Hospitaler.
- Ill.: Eben J. Cutler, 33°, Master of Ceremonies.
- Ill.: Robert V. Hampson, 33°, Standard Bearer.
- Bro.: David J. Nye, 32°, Captain of Guard.
- Bro.: James H. Thompson, 32°, Sentinel.

After a most prosperous season of work, a report was made to the Supreme Council, then sitting at the city of Cleveland, on the 18th of September, 1890, showing an increase of membership of 110, making the body 560 strong.

At this session of the Supreme Council a charter was granted to the petitioners, and the style changed to that of "LAKE ERIE CONSISTORY."
